ASEAN University Network
Human Rights Education (AUN-HRE)

About AUN-HRE

Realizing that human rights and fundamental freedoms is one of the key principles for ASEAN Community building, the ASEAN University Network-Human Rights Education Theme (AUN-HRE) was formally established in 2009 by the ASEAN University Network Board of Trustees to promote human rights and research opportunities in the areas of human rights, to serve as a platform for collaboration and capacity building amongst member-institutions, and to strengthen existing cooperation and enhance human rights education for ASEAN people.

Mahidol University was appointed as the focal point for the theme The Institute of Human Rights and Peace Studies has been assigned to coordinate the network and implement relevant activities in cooperation with members of the network.

About SEAHRN

The Southeast Asian Human Rights Studies Network (SEAHRN) was born out of a common dream, among its 14 founding members, to enhance and deepen the knowledge and understanding of students and educators as well as other individuals and institutions from Southeast Asia in human rights. This goal will be achieved by engaging in collaborative research, improving course curricula and training programmes, sharing of best practices and conducting capacity building training of educators, staff and students and other interested individuals and institutions. Furthermore, it seeks necessary regional academic and civil society cooperation to sustain the effective promotion and protection of human rights in the Region. The Network desires to open its doors to interested institutions and individuals who share its vision for human rights and peace in Southeast Asia.

Member institutions and individuals of SEAHRN are aiming to achieve the following core objectives:

To strengthen higher education devoted to the study of human rights in Southeast Asia through faculty and course development;

To develop deeper understanding and enhancement of human rights knowledge through collaborative research;

To achieve excellent regional academic and civil society cooperation in realizing human rights in Southeast Asia; and

To conduct public advocacy through critical engagement with civil society actors, including inter-governmental bodies, in Southeast Asia

In pursuit of these objectives, SEAHRN has expanded its membership to 22 academic institutions. Moreover, it has successfully organized three international conferences on Human Rights and Peace & Conflict in Southeast Asia (Bangkok, 2010; Jakarta, 2012; Kuala Lumpur, 2014). It has also done training both seasoned and emerging scholars in human rights based research and instruction. It has also published an academic series containing relevant researches on some human rights and peace issues in the Region. It is currently developing a human rights and peace textbook which features various themes written for and by Southeast Asian academics and scholars.

In terms of resource material development, SEAHRN has already published Human Rights in Southeast Asia Series 1: Breaking the Silence (October 2011), Human Rights and Peace in Southeast Asia Series 2: Defying the Impasse (September 2013) and Human Rights and Peace in Southeast Asia Series 3: Amplifying the Voices (September 2013). and Human Rights and Peace in Southeast Asia Series 4: Challenge the Norms (August 2016). Its Members involved in producing the first ever university-level textbook on human rights and peace and conflict in Southeast Asia.
