

Call for Participants

The 3rd Lecturer Workshop on Teaching Human Rights

8-11 July 2019, Thailand

SHAPE SEA is pleased to call for participants to the 3rd Lecturer Workshop on Teaching Human Rights. The training will develop lecturer skills and knowledge for teaching human rights at the undergraduate and graduate level.

The objectives are:

- Improve lecturer knowledge on fundamental concepts and theories, standards and protection of human rights
- Develop skills for teaching human rights in the university
- Introduce lecturers to textbooks and other resources for teaching human rights
- Outline methods of assessment and evaluation of students of human rights

WHO CAN APPLY?

The workshop is open to lecturers or teaching assistants in Southeast Asian Universities who are currently teaching, or plan to teach human rights in the near future. The requirements are:

- Lecturers are based at a Southeast Asian Universities
- Lecturers have an active teaching record
- Lecturers have advanced speaking and listening skills in English
- Preference will be given for people employed full time

In the selection process, balance among participants is sought in terms of gender, academic discipline and country representative.

TRAINING STRUCTURE

Part One: Knowledge of human rights	Part Two: Classroom and Lecture Skills	Part Three: Curriculum and resources
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Fundamental concepts and theories of human rights • Core treaties and rights • Emerging areas of rights • Special groups: Women, children, Persons with Disabilities, etc • Areas of focus: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Social and political sciences 2. Development, Environment, Peace 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Teaching sensitive issues • Discussing human rights in the classroom • Student exercises: running discussion, simulations, group work 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Developing learning objectives • Curriculum planning • Useful resources: the human rights textbook • On line resources • Connecting with the human rights network

SHAPE
S E A

Mahidol University
Institute of Human Rights and Peace Studies

The resource persons at the workshop are lecturers from Southeast Asia with experience in teaching human rights. There will be specialized sessions for lecturers teaching in law faculties, social science (including politics, international relations, sociology, and gender studies), and environment and development programs. Lecturers will also be trained to use the SHAPE-SEA/SEAHRN textbook An Introduction to Human Rights in Southeast Asia.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Scholarships to cover tuition fee, airfare (economy flights), accommodation and food will be provided.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

For an application to be complete, the following documents must be submitted:

1. A completed application form
2. A letter of organizational endorsement, which is to be provided by a course/program director, Chair, or Dean. The letter should explain how the applicant's participation in the program fits into the School/Faculty/University priorities and activities.

The completed application form and a letter of endorsement shall be sent by email to: education.shapesea@gmail.com. For enquiries, please contact education.shapesea@gmail.com. For enquiries, please contact Ms. Sunsanee Sutthisunsanee, Project Manager for Education at education.shapesea@gmail.com

Applications close 12 May 2019

ABOUT THE ORGANIZERS

Strengthening Human Rights and Peace Education in Southeast Asia (SHAPE-SEA)

Launched in February 2015, SHAPE-SEA contributes to the improvement of the human rights and peace situation in Southeast Asia through applied research and education. It supports research on innovative and critical projects on human rights and peace, and in exploring ways in which this knowledge is made accessible to university students throughout ASEAN/SEA. SHAPE-SEA is hosted by the IHRP. It is supported by the Swedish International Development Cooperation Agency (SIDA), and the Norwegian Centre for Human Rights (NCHR) (<http://shapesea.com/>)

Institute for Human Rights and Peace Studies (IHRP), Mahidol University

IHRP is committed to the advancement of human rights and peace by educating human rights and peace practitioners, promoting outreach programs to community and international organizations, and conducting cutting edge research on important issues. (<http://www.ihrp.mahidol.ac.th/>)

We are looking forward to receiving your applications!

Education Component / SHAPE-SEA

SHAPE-SEA Secretariat

Rm. 308, Institute of Human Rights and Peace Studies (IHRP),
Panyaphiphat Bldg., Mahidol University, Salaya, Phuttamonthon,
Nakhon Pathom, Thailand 73170
shape.seasec@gmail.com