

CALL FOR PARTICIPANTS

Academic Research Training on Human Rights and Peace for Scholars in Timor Leste

Organised by the Strengthening Human Rights and Peace Research & Education in ASEAN/Southeast Asia Programme (SHAPE-SEA) and Faculty of Social Sciences, National University of East Timor (UNTL)

3-4 April 2017

National University of East Timor (UNTL), Dili, Timor Leste

Mediums of Instruction: Tetun and English

Objectives

1. To enhance capacities of graduate students, scholars from universities based in Timor Leste to produce quality research on human rights and/or peace in Southeast Asia/ASEAN;
2. To gain better understanding of the situation of human rights and/or peace in Timor Leste and in the region; and
3. To raise awareness of the significance of academic research to the promotion and protection of human rights and building of peace in Timor Leste.

Qualifications

- Participants (academics, graduate students, researchers) should be affiliated with a university based in Timor Leste.
- Members of civil society may attend as an individual researcher or part of a research team, as long as they are part of a research team affiliated with a university.

Participants will receive a certificate upon the full completion of the training programme.

Please submit your application form by 17 March 2017 to joel.shapesea@gmail.com or join SHAPE-SEA's Facebook Page: Strengthening Human Rights and Peace Research Education in ASEAN/SEAsia (Send us a message)

SHAPE-SEA is supported by the Swedish International Development Cooperation Agency (SIDA) and the Norwegian Centre for Human Rights.